OROVILLE ORANGES.

Trees Being Planted by the Thousand in all Directions. Robert Williamson, of the firm of W.R. Strong & Co., returned yesterday from a visit to Oroville and vicinity. He brought with him a lot of oranges, some taken ance and one who numbered his friends from the celebrated Bidwell's Bar tree, and by the score. At the examination held by the Board others from trees of Judge C. F. Lott and others from trees of Judge C. F. Lott and of Education last week, Miss Lillie M. Ragsdale and Miss Anna T. Some of them were yesterday compared with certificates. others from Riverside and the tests were Sheriff Butler left for Fortland, Oregon strongly in favor of the Oroville fruit. Two oranges of the same size were weighed and it was found that the Oroville orange weighed 14 ounces more than the River-side. The rinds were then removed and it was shown that those of the Riverside orange weighed half an ounce more than the other. In flavor the Oroville orange had a decided advantage and the waste in the pulp was not near so great. The River-side orange used in the test was the best specimen that could be found in the box from which it was taken. It will be remembered, also, that the Oroville oranges ripen a full month earlier than those grown in Southern California. Mr. Williamson says that more orange trees have been planted in a radius of ten miles around Oroville during the past two years than in any other similer. years than in any other similar area in the State. JURORS DECLINE TO SERVE IN THE OLD BUILDING.

Judge Buckley Says He Does Not Blame Them-Some Very Bad Young Boys.

When the Police Court was called to o der yesterday morning there was a goodl number of people present in consequence of a jury trial being on the calendar, an the general topic of conversation was th dangerous condition of the building. Ther had been a venire issued for twenty-fiv jurors to try the case of Mrs. Anderson charged with keeping a disorderly house but there were hardly a half-dozen in th Court-room, most of the others having been excused by Judge Buckley.

Acting City Attorney Clarken also gave his views as to the rickety condition of the structure, and he was not at all inclined to stay within its walls. He moved that a committee consisting of Police Judge Buckley, City Attorney Church and Chief of Police Lee be appointed by the Bar to see the City Trustees immediately and urge that they take prompt steps to procure another building in which to hold Court. This seemed to be the unanimous opinion of all present, and it was so ordered.

The case of Mrs. Anderson was continued

Seventeen cases of vagrancy were on the calendar, and as many men were crowded in the police dock and on the benches. One of the men had a railroad time-care on his person, which showed that he had been working up to one day prior to his arrest, and the Court allowed him to go. What has puzzled the detectives more than anything else is the plan by which Kenny or Taylor or Williams got hold of the check. As nearly as can be ascertained, Mrs. Crocker inclosed the check in a letter and gave it to her gardener to mail. This functionary delegated the commission to a butcher's boy who came to the house and the latter, on his way down town, fell in with Taylor, who jumped on his wagon to ride with him. On the way the boy told Taylor about the letter given him to mail. Taylor asked to see it, and as the envelope was loosely sealed, he easily opened it with a lead pencil. Seeing the check inclosed, Taylor persuaded the boy to give it to him, promising him $100. He then jumped out of the wagon and disappeared. This is all known of the case up to date, and whether the culprit be Kenny or Tayor or Williams, or all three, remains for future developments to divulge.

Miller, a veteran brickmason. se-builder and contractor, called at the RECORD-UNION office last evening and expressed his opinion freely concerning the uilding, City Trustees and other persons who have condemned the building whileas he says-having no knowledge whatever on the subject. Mr. Miller declares that, instead of talking about repairing the tank, the first thing to do is to strengthen the uilding beneath the tank, and to do it com the ground up. Properly constructed uttresses, he says, are all that are necessary to make the building strong enough to ast for several years to come, and in the meantime the Trustees could (if they hould develop the necessary business ca pacity) raise by special taxation sufficient oney to build a new and substantial structure. He says that the tank has been repeatedly filled to overflowing, and that the escaping water has done most of the njury. The buttress put in by him many years ago, under the northwest corner, h says is as strong as ever, and that the south east corner could now be strengthened in the same manner. Mr. Miller said h knows the building is in bad condition, but is firmly of the opinion that it can, at small temperature yesterday was 82° and 56°, expense, be made to last for at least three or four years.
